Don't have an agent and need help submitting an offer?

If you are an unrepresented buyer (not working with a real estate agent), we can help you submit an offer to purchase this property. If so, we would be a transactional agent to you meaning that we are facilitating the paperwork on your behalf and per your instructions. We cannot offer any advice or negotiate on your behalf because we represent the seller in this transaction. If you are new to purchasing real estate, we recommend working with a licensed real estate agent or a real estate attorney.

If you want to go this route, fill out this form to start the process:
